A party of thirty young people from the south end of the city went on a sleigh ride Saturday evening to Williston. They spent the evening at the hotel there with supper and dancing in the hall.

A young man with an eye for business, who resides on Ayer's street, embraced the opportunity Saturday evening to earn some money by rigging up a sled and transporting people over the water which had flooded the upper end of the street several inches deep. He charged five cents a ride on his improvised ferry and collected two dollars in fares through the evening.

A chance of a lifetime! On account of Gilbertson's orchestra being obliged to cancel its engagement of February 20 and having extra men hired for this date and also for the 21st, it gives the dancers a chance to go to a dance Thursday evening, February 20, in the Woodmen's hall, Bolster block. This is the same orchestra that played for the hospital benefit. Now, if you danced after this music once, you will want to again; and if you never have, you surely will want to for it is second to none. Now, remember, this is probably the only chance you will have this winter to hear this orchestra to no good advantage. Turn out and give the only musical organization you have in town a royal send-off.

Heat of the Sun.

It has been computed that the temperature of the surface of the sun would be expressed by 18,000 degrees of Fahrenheit's thermometer, or between eighty and ninety times the temperature of boiling water. This is five times the highest temperature that man is able to produce by artificial means. The light given off from the surface of the sun is reckoned as being 3,250 times more intense than that of the molten metal in a Bessemer converter, though that is of an almost blinding brilliancy. If we compare it with oxygenated flame, the sun sheds a light equal to 146 times the intensity of the limelight.

SIRE AND SONS.

Governor Willson of Kentucky sings well and is an expert golf player.

Congressman Daniel F. Lafaen of Pennsylvania has made more than $1,000,000 in the manufacture of candy.

William Seils, a schoolmaster in the early days of Michigan, now at eighty feels that he can spell down any high school class in the state.

Senator William B. Allison, the Nestor of the senate, is the only living charter member of the Masonic lodge in Dubuque, Ia., which will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary in March.

Li Ching Fong, the new incumbent of the Chinese legation in England, is one of the wealthiest men in the world and by right of his descent, riches and family influence the premier grandee of China.

Edwin S. Gardner of Dover, Del., who is eight years old, was born on the last hour of the day, the last day of the week, the last week of the month, the last month of the year and the last year of the century.

Lucius Teter, who has just been elected president of the Chicago Savings Bank and Trust company, is the youngest bank president in the country. Only sixteen years ago he was a messenger in the bank of which he is now the head.

George Redford, who has been the London theatrical censor for the last six or seven years, is a permanent official of the lord chamberlain's office. Mr. Redford's office is worth about $850 a year. The salary itself is only $320, the fees making up the balance. Mr. Redford reads from 500 to 600 plays a year.

The Writers.

David Belasco is the hardest worker of any of the American playwrights.

Count Tolstoy, criticising Dante, characterized the production of the Italian poet as cloudy and unintelligible.

Hiram L. Spencer, one of the veteran poets of the country, is spending the sunset of his life in a quiet country home at White Head, N. B. He was born in Vermont in 1829. His best known poem, "A Hundred Years to Come," was written when he was at school.

Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist, was born in Canada in 1862 and educated at Trinity college, Toronto. In 1886 he was associate editor of the Morning Herald, Sydney, Australia. He has traveled extensively in the east, among the south sea islands, in Europe and in northern Canada. He has represented Great Britain in the British parliament since 1900.

In a French Chateau in Winter.

It is not all bliss to be invited to a French chateau in midwinter, no matter how distinguished the host or how romantic and artistic the domicile. At least it isn't for the steam heated Bostonian, lapped in the luxury of summer warmth. A visitor to a distractingly lovely abode near Fontainebleau says he put in twenty-four hours of physical anguish there and simply came away wondering how his hosts endured the arctic temperature of the rooms. "If I meant to live in foreign lands," says this shivering person, "I would go through the chilling process which lures human flesh and blood in France. What do these people do to render the blood in their veins to course like fire and act like an eternal furnace?" That's a question Americans abroad might well like to have answered.—Boston Herald.
